Property Services Regulatory Authority (PSRA) Compliance Help Sheet

Records of Offers Received

Agents are required to retain a record of all offers received by the Agent in respect of a residential/commercial property or agricultural land offered for sale for at least six years

The PSRA has specified a record of each offer received in respect of the sale of property or land and PSRA/S61-2012 was published on 23rd October 2012 and agents should check on the PSRA website www.psr.ie that it has not been superseded before using it

The Society has published a series of regulation helpsheets which are available at: www.scsi.ie or if you have any further queries please do not hesitate to contact us at: regulation@scsi.ie
